SAM BARON

Born in France in 1976, Sam Baron has a degree in Design from the Fine Arts School of Saint-Étienne and a post-graduate degree from the National Decorative Arts School of Paris. He is an independent designer and currently heads the design department of Fabrica, in the communications research centre in Trevise. He lives between Paris, Lisbon and Treviso and channels his designs through the biggest international galleries and manufacturers - Zanotta, Ligne Roset, Nilufar, Secondome and others.

He regularly dedicates beautiful and affordable collections to the public, collections that today can be found in the La Redoute catalogue in France, or Casamania in Italy. In 2010 he has been awarded as Designer of the Year at Maison&Objet.

« Sam Baron generates artistic dialogue between traditional savoir-faire and ultra-contemporary forms. »

LANTERNA
PENDANT LAMPS
SAM BARON

Edition 2014

LANTERNA...
ACCORDING TO ITS DESIGNER :

« From a simple lamp to the recollection of a Chinese rounded lantern, LANTERNA is a family of different sized pieces that pay homage to the electric light that we all have at home. The golden texture transforms the light, creates a warm atmosphere and gives a special beauty to your interior, your favorite objects and intimacy. »

LANTERNA is a pendant lamp designed by Sam Baron, that exists in three sizes and two colours, black and white. The simplicity of the structure contrasts with the atmosphere it diffuses : the light, reflected in the golden interior, suddenly gives the lamp a strong, warm and radiant aspect.
